HYPNOTIC SHOW AT EMPIRE IS GOOD

There has been no let-up to the crowds that fill the Empire Theater every evening to watch the mystifying stunts of the Great Norwoods. Twice last night the house was filled and emptied and it was a roar from end to end in each performance. Notwithstanding that there is mystery connected with the show it is still full of comedy and funny situations.

All the afternoon yesterday there was a crowd in front of the downtown window where Miss Ford, a member of the Norwoods troupe, was playing the piano while under the hypnotic influence and at the opening of the first performance last night she was taken to the theater and brought out of the "spell". Although she had been playing the piano continuously all the afternoon she did not seem to be suffering from any exhaustion when brought out of the hypnotic state.

The mind-reading tests that are made nightly are surely something to be wondered at, as there is absolutely no chance for any crooked work. Professor Norwood has made good here and the class of entertainment that he is giving to the public is meeting with appreciation. There are two performances every evening, and the prices are the usual prices charged at the Empire.

SAVOY'S PROGRAM CHANGES TONIGHT

The Savoy Theater is as popular as it used to be before it was closed down for alterations, and amusement-lovers know that there is always something worth while going on there behind the footlights.

Billie Rader is there with her sweet soprano voice and entertains with all the new songs that are considered on top at the present time.

Al Verne changes his line of entertainment tonight, and he will give an exhibition of some speedy dancing that is guaranteed to make one's head go dizzy.

The films of motion pictures that are being shown are the pick of the new lot that was received by the last steamer. The Savoy will hold this program to the end of the week.

"CHRISTOPHER JR." IS CLARKE PLAY TONIGHT

Tonight Harry Corson Clarke and his clever company will present "Christopher, Jr." This play while a comedy is a little different from any other in the Clarke repertoire. A charming love story runs through the play. The cast is a long one and every member of the talented company will be given an excellent opportunity. Mr. Clarke will assume a role as original as any yet portrayed by him. His performance of Mr. Gibbs must be seen to be appreciated. Next week will be the last opportunity the people of Honolulu will have to see this clever comedian and his excellent company and there is little doubt that crowded houses will be the rule.

BAND CONCERT.

The Hawaiian Band will play tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. The program follows: March: Stripes and Stripes Forever

Sousa Overture: The Golden Crown. Herman Introduction: Carmen. Bizet Selection: Nabucco. Verdi Vocal: Hawaiian Songs, ar. by Berger Selection: Spring Maid. Reinhardt Waltz: The Source. Waldteufel Polka: Red and Black. Coote The Star-Spangled Banner.
